bring his wife to Utah with him. His father's family had already gone on ahead.

On January 9, 1866, their first child was born in Stavley, Derbyshire, England. Her name was Mary Hannah Daybell. Then in the spring of 1866 this family sailed for Zion.

They crossed the plains in a mule train. Robert loved to hunt and had purchased a gun in England, which he had with him. His wife was not well and he went out in hopes of finding some wild game to add to their meager diet, but Robert Daybell never came back. Fires were built that night to show the way back to the company, but he did not return. This was on August 16, 1866. The next day the company had to go on without him.

It was a trial for his wife, and when she arrived in Utah, she went to live with his parents. Within a few months, on January 11, 1867, she gave birth to another baby girl, Katie Elizabeth.

Agnes Ann Bancroft Daybell married George Sharrett Moore in 1871 and to them were born eleven children. The children were: Robert Daybell, William Bancroft, Godfrey Finity, Susanna, John Newham, Maybell, Sarah Ann, Ernest, James Eden, Constance, Florence.

WILLIAM AND ANNIE PRICE DAYBELL

William Daybell was born February 24, 1858 at Derbyshire, England, a son of Finity and Mary Draper Daybell. Married Annie Price on November 12, 1877 at Heber City. Annie Price was born June 21, 1858 at Ludlow Shropshire, England, the daughter of James and Ann Price. William died November 29, 1945. Annie died at Heber City February 14, 1920.

When William was six years old, his family emigrated to the United States. Their party landed at New Orleans and came directly to Utah, arriving at Charleston, December 24, 1864.

William grew to manhood on his father's farm. He later engaged in the dairy business and was successful in both undertakings.

It was after his marriage that William labored as a missionary in Tennessee, from May, 1885 to November, 1887. He was Superintendent of the Sunday School for thirteen years and for twenty-five years an officer in the Sunday School. He was a member of the High Council for ten years and on Feb. 10, 1901 was set apart as Bishop of the Charleston Ward. He was also active in civic work as a County Commissioner for two years, trustee of the Charleston School Board, President of the canal company, road supervisor, stockholder and director of the Charleston Co-op. He was, for the last twenty-six years of his life, Patriarch of the Wasatch Stake.

Annie Daybell held numerous positions in the church, working in the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association, Relief Society, and serving as President of the Primary Association in the Charleston Ward. In her later years she was called on to take care of the dead, which she did for nineteen years. There were no morticians in the valley then, and she helped dress and lay away sixty-seven people. She was a temple worker all her life.

They were the parents of 11 children: John William, Mary Ann, James Finity, Phebe E., Joseph Franklin, Myrtle, Violet B., Lula, Ernest, Warren.

PHILIP AND MARY SIMMONS EDWARDS

Philip Edwards was born December 24, 1833 at Clayton Sussex, England. Married Mary Simmons February 19, 1860 in Clayton Parish, England. She was born October 24, 1834, at Clayton Sussex, England. She was the daughter of John Simmons and Martha Braysher. Philip Edwards died January 14, 1908; Mary Simmons Edwards died December 8, 1911.

Two months after Philip and Mary were married in England, they set sail for the United States. They crossed the plains in the J. D. Rosses company. Arrived in Salt Lake City, the 3rd day of September, 1860, they camped on the Eighth Ward square where the City and County Building now stands.

The first winter they resided in the 14th Ward, where their first child was born.

They received their endowments October 1861 in the Endowment House, Salt Lake City.

He was ordained a High Priest in 1876 in the Mill Creek Ward by Ruben Miller.

They resided in Salt Lake Valley until April, 1883. Then they moved to Charleston.

They had children: Mrs. Nephi (Lucy S.) Casper, Ellen who died young, Philip William, Mary Eliza (Mrs. George Bagley), George Henry, Mrs. Elisha (Emma Miriam) Webster, John Oliver, Joseph Parley, Orson Daniel, and Mrs. Robert Lindsay (Alice Matilda).

PHILLIP WILLIAM EDWARDS

Phillip William Edwards was born February 7, 1864, at Salt Lake City, a son of Phillip and Mary Simmons Edwards. He married Bertha Webster, December 19, 1888, at Heber City.

Phillip William Edwards moved to Charleston with his parents in April 1883. He worked in Daniels Canyon getting logs and sawing them into lumber to build his home.

Phillip and Bertha received their endowments on October 29, 1890 in the Logan Temple.

Phillip was President and Director of Charleston Irrigation Company for twenty years. He was a High Priest at the time of his death.

Phillip and Bertha were the parents of eight children: Albert William, Mrs. Clarence (Mary Draper) Widdison, Mrs. Ernest (Violet Ann) Rasband, Mrs. Wheatleigh (Vilda Anna) Gibson, Mrs. Sylvan (Agnes Chloe) Shanks, Glen Raymond, Reed Douglas and Mrs. Lewis L. (Florence) Galli.

JOHN AND ELIZABETH BAIRD FOWERS

John Fowers was born September 27, 1842 at Noymanton, Derbyshire, England, a son of Jesse and Sarah Johnson Fowers. He married Elizabeth Baird, September 16, 1874. She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Marshall Baird, and was born March 14, 1855 at Refrewshire, Scotland. John died February 1, 1907, and Elizabeth died June 14, 1933.

John Fowers majored in business in England, and did much of the clerical work of the branch of the LDS Church. His father Jesse was the Presiding Elder of the Branch.

The family left Liverpool, England, May 16, 1864, on ship "General McClellen." John and his brother William earned passage, assisting the cooks. They arrived at Castle Gardens, New York, June 23, 1864. Later they rode in cattle cars to Missouri and bought three yoke of oxen and a wagon and left for Utah with company of 62 wagons, under Capt. Joseph S. Rawlins. John, William and a friend, William Beaton, loaded freight in Atchison, Kansas, for Joseph Sharp, driving three yoke of oxen each. He was reunited with his family on arrival in Salt Lake City, October, 1864.

The family moved to Ogden, October 12, 1864. John worked for David McKenzie, who was head of all tithing of the church in Salt Lake for one year. John trained under Colonel William Fife for Army service; played the violin at ward dances and studied astronomy under Mr. David Reese.

John and Elizabeth Baird were married September 16, 1874, and lived in Hooper for five years and then moved to Charleston in the spring of 1880. They bought a farm and reared ten children. After joining the LDS Church, Elizabeth left Liverpool, England on the freighter "Bellwood" with 500 Mormons. Landing at Castle Garden, N.Y.,
